A third coincidental development was the arrest of a suspect in Quebec City Wednesday for allegedly trying to cash $10,000 worth of the stolen bonds.

Police also said that a city police said the operation was so professional the thieves had even set up their own alarm system. They narrowly missed another fortune in bonds after giving up attempts to crack a steel safe.

Police said they have learned stolen bonds there.

The robbery ranks close behind that of a bank branch in suburban Outremont last year when a number of safety deposit boxes were cleaned out. The exact loss never has been made known but estimates ranged as high as $8,000,000.

Still the Spiral

THE INCREASED COSTS OF production built into the Canadian economy last year are working their way inexorably into the price of goods this year. According to latest official figures, the costof-living index reached an all-time peak in February. Doubtless it broke through that peak again in March. And as things are going now, more increases may well lie,

The February increase was alarmingly large. Average retail prices rose by six-tenths of a point to the index figure of 124.3 (the level of 1949 being taken as 100)

This advance is much larger than the figure of three-tenths of a point in January. It means that in February prices were rising at the rate of about half of one per cent per month or 6 per cent per year. Or, putting it the other way, money was losing its value at that rate, and if the rate continued for some fifteen years the value of the Canadian dollar—and all fixed savings—would disappear altogether.

These facts are revealed by the national Government at the very moment when it is preparing to borrow several billion dollars from the public. About $2 billions of maturing debt must be refunded before the year's end. Something like a billion, it is expected, will have to be borrowed to cover the Government's budgetary deficit.

All this money will be repaid scrupulously in dollars. What will those dollars be worth by then? That is one of the questions raised by the new cost-of-living index. The other, and more immediate, question is how the ordinary family is to pay the prices that are getting higher the time.

It will pay them either by getting higher wages or cutting down its purchases of non-essential goods, to the great damage of many industries and to employment.

If wages are generally raised prices will rise again, cancelling out the supposed gains for the commu-nity as a whole, though various powerful groups, of course, may secure an advantage over others The great mass of the people, not being organized in a pressure group are and will continue to be the chief victims of the inflation.

It is no longer a monetary infla-tion since the available supply of goods, actual or potential, is as large as the supply of money.

Yet we still have a powerful inflation of another sort - a wageprice inflation just as certain as monetary inflation to push up prices. The rate of productivity of Canadian industry dropped in the last year while its wage rates rose. That combination could not fail to increase prices. So long as these two factors are combined prices will continue to increase and fixed savings to fall, though the rate may fluctuate temporarily.

The larger wage negotiations now under way would seem to assure a continuing spiral of price increases in many areas of industry. A heavy increase in wages, and hence the operating costs, of the railways, as demanded, would increase the costs of virtually all industries, since all use the railways, directly or indirectly. And the end result of this process must make all goods harder to sell, both inside Canada and outside it-in other words, to worsen the recession.

Such conditions are not the fault of the Diefenbaker Government or, for that matter, any government. They are mainly the result of distortions introduced into the North American economy by various non governmental pressures outside governmental control.

But the responsibility of arresting the present spiral must rest primarily with the Diefenbaker Government because it is responsible to the whole people and not to any particular pressure group.

Without question, the Govern-ment's paramount problem today is to deal with the paradox of a recession which is still raising prices. In dealing with it the Government deserves the support of the whole people, especially when it is asking the people to lend it their money.

Within the Sack

IN discussing that social, economic and spiritual phenomenon vulgarly called the sack dress or, more politely, the chemise, most of our current investigators have lost their way. This, perhaps, is not surprising on a terrain so vast, ill-mapped and monotonous. Anyone can get lost in the sack, especially the wearer. But there is an importance here, a deep logic and a dire warning which we shall neglect at our peril. Within Hutchison riddle and the answer of our time. Let us go into the sack rather deeply.

To begin with, we may reject at once the vain speculation and idle sciolism of those ignorant observers who conclude that the sack has no meaning and proceed to make cheap fun of it, as m made fun of the Russian Revolution, another phenomenon of some importance, until it was ready to make atoms of us. Pay no heed to the professional humor-ists who say that the sack has no meaning. It has a profound meaning. It has more meaning, as I shall prove in a moment, than most of the doctrines of current politics and all the expert calculations of the economists. The whole dilemma of our age is contained in the sack. Though it may seem to contain only a woman, it enwraps the social crisis.

THAT may not be immediately obvious to the young who have no memory of past events, but it will be understood any man old enough to remember the 920s and their aftermath. In the 1920s North American society wore all the outward signs and the ruddy blush of health. The president of the United States announced that poverty had been abolished. The bankers of Wall Street announced the two-car nation. Mr. Henry Ford announced the incredible daily wage of $5. The stock market ascended to a new peak (just before leaping out the 20th-story window). The golden age had dawned at last.

Everybody was fooled—except the North American woman. She was not fooled for a moment. In the midst of all this celebration she foresaw the crash and prepared for it. While men were dressing in silk shirts and hundred-dollar suits, she dressed herself in sackcloth. She wore precisely the same costume that she is wearing today. And the crash came.

A BOUT 18 months ago North America displayed the old ruddy flush of health. Again governments announced that poverty was abolished. Again the economists proved by indisputable fig-ures that ultimate prosperity was just ahead. Again the stock market soared up to the 20th floor. And again the woman was not fooled. She saw what was coming and dressed in sackcloth.

Any man past middle age, with a lick of sense, should have realized then that the boom was hollow and must collapse like an unfilled sack. A man who remem bered the '20s should have realized that the sack contained a bust, though it was disguised like the rest of the wearer in a shapeless integument,

But governments were so fully occupied in self-congratulation, politicians were so proud of their foolproof society, economists were so obsessed with statistics that the appearance of the sack was greeted as a joke when it should have en recognized as an infallible portent.

NOW, I do not argue that the woman understands economics consciously. 1 do not say that every woman buying a sack and concealing herself in a loose envelope could read the grim message within it or even the address on the out

The woman left conscious understand ing to the statesmen, economists, busi-nessmen and labor leaders. They read the inner writing to mean perpetual pros They read the address and forwarded the letter to Santa Claus.

Any man who had seen the same thing happen before should have sold all his stocks more than a year ago; for the ng was plain, the sack was flying warning was plain, the sack was like a flag of distress, the deep unc ous instinct of womankind had uttered its premonition. The woman might seem merely to be making herself appear ridiculous but she knew who was truly ridiculous, and it was somebody else. It was you and I. Not the woman but society was getting the sack.

PAY no attention, therefore, to the current statements of government. Dis-regard the stock market. Dismiss the economists' cunning figures. Watch the only figure that counts. Watch the female figure. It will tell you everything, as it always has from Eve's time onward. the fig leaf, which forecast the first crash and the end of Eden?)
Watch the female figure and when it begins to emerge again, when woman bursts the current cocoon, when shape once more appears, when the female sex becomes distinguishable from a bag of potatoes, when the sack goes out of fash-ion ,then, and not till then, prosperity will come in.

If you are a wise investor ignore the line of the economists' charts and the party line of the politicians. Follow only waistline and you will become rich, even rich enough to pay for your wife's new fashions.

As Our Readers See It

It Isn't Socialism

The CCF needn't feel too downcast at the loss of their important members of parliament.

The Conservative government will carry on a large part of the CCF program at Ottawa: Reducing U.S. control of American subsidiary companies in Canada; expanding trade with China and elsewhere; introducing social reforms which reduce the cost of production of labor-power with its inevitable reduction of wages; maintaining the interests of Canada generally, which means the continued exploitation of those who have to work for a "living" specifically.

And now a grateful conservative news paper has suggested that M. J. Coldwell be appointed to the Senate. What bet-ter reward for one who has served privilege for so long and so faithfully? And some people have the nerve to call this Socialism!

Proportional Representation

According to the votes, given in the Times, April 1, and final results, April 2, if we had proportional representation in Canada — the only fair way — then the Progressive Conservatives would have had 142 members instead of 209; the Liberals 88 instead of 48; the CCF 26 instead of 8, and the others 9 instead

In Holland we have had proportional representation as long as I can remem-ber. There, the result has made it necesto form a coalition government yet, to judge by results - the way Holland has rebuilt itself since the war after the devastation by the Huns-even such a government can accomplish a lot, if the will is there.

The Prime Minister in Holland, Mr. Drees, has been and is a Labor man (Social Democrat); and such a govern-ment is surely more desirable than what we have now here — a top-heavy one, with power far more than it is entitled to, and an opposition much weaker than it could and should be.

Those parties which now have less representation than they are entitled to according to the popular vote-should o what they can before the next election to change the existing system of voting by constituencies, with its idiotic results. The same applies to provincial

Rock of Ages'

The Ripple Rock removal has been the principal subject of discussion for some time. It is a relief to know that it has been successfully accomplished.

It would have been appropriate if the churches had included the popular refrain 'Rock of Ages" in their hymn category. In my younger days the fishermen on the British coast used to celebrate a good catch of fish by singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessing Flow." It used to be very impressive to hear in the early mornings the strong voices coming across the water.

This custom has been discontinued through an unfortunate incident. During the Russo-Japanese war in 1904 a fleet of Hull trawlers had a successful catch of fish on the Dogger Bank. They pro-ceeded to express their thanks as menroute to the Far East and encountered the fishing boats. The officers being apparently overcharged with vodka, mis-took the trawlers for Japanese torpedo boats, and opened fire on them. One or more of the boats were sunk with some loss of life.

At a tribunal held in Paris, the owners of the lost ships were rewarded a substantial compensation.

Time to Rebuild

The overwhelming Progressive Con-servative victory seems to be the signal for much rejoicing, because it heralds the disappearance of the so called splint-

This conclusion seems to be a little premature, or, we could be indulging in a little wishful thinking. The CCF still obtained almost 10 per cent of the total vote across the country, mostly a labor It would be healthier if it were more diversified. Still it is something to build on again, when the time comes.

We should recognize the actions and policies of the two old parties were re-sponsible for the rise of the splinter parties. The CCF and the Socreds were direct descendants of the Progressive Party of 1921 as I remember it, and I believe the cause was the absence of any real Liberal Party in Canada at that time.

The Liberal Party which was traditionally a reform party, has had for years its main anchor in the province of Quebec, where reforms are apt to come more slowly than in the rest of Canada Of course to say that we did not get any reforms from the Liberal Party when they were in power is not true, but they came mostly because of pressure from various progressive groups both in and out of the House of Commo

With the result of the last election the Liberals find they are not tied to any section of Canada, and they have the chance to become a real reform party, they must now rebuild right from the ground. Whether or not we have splinter parties of any strength, depends well they build. There is no room for two Conservative parties in

When the People Wake Up'

Does Mr. P. H. Thomas, president of Oak Bay CCF Association, think that the avowed alignment of CCF with labor unions will really help the CCF?

A poll taken of the voters would show that 90 per cent (including many union members) are heartily sick of outrageous and greedy union tactics responsible for unlimited wage increases and corresponding higher costs.

What sensible person (without an axe to grind) would want to vote CCF when by their unqualified rabid support of unreasonable labor demands they show themselves to be glaringly against the when the people really wake up to the fact that the CCF is the only party which supports the suicidal demands of labor the CCF vote will drop to the vanishing point. FRANK H. PARTRIDGE.

There is, moreover, in France an admix-ture of race feeling so that a political advocate of negotiations in Algeria is rather like a white man in Little Rock advocating integration in the public

This is a dark picture, as I have painted about this projected meeting at the summit. How gay a prospect for a wistful world that must consider legal government in Parie really contributed in the summit of the summit is the gravest doubt as to whether the anguished predictions of dictatorship and anguished predictions of dictatorship and civil war which are current in Paris. For one thing, though the war cannot now be settled by a negotiated arrangement, it is not unlikely, I think, that in fact an arrangement will develop.

The essence of the Algerian question is that there are two communities one white and European, and one dark and Moslem—living on the same land. The North African territories, Morocco Tunisia and Algeria, are not capable of economic independence. They are to an extraordinary degree integrated with and dependent upon the subventions and the protective devices of the French econmy.

L ONDON—The announcement that Canadians buy just short of four million newspapers each day prompted me to find out how this compares to this country.

I knew that the English are great newspaper readers but until I got the facts I didn't realize just how much more avid they are at this occupation than are Canadians. The English get through 30 million papers

YOUR HEALTH

Asthma Causes

Every week I get letters from unhappy asthmatics who want to know what brings on their sudden attacks of wheezing. Why will they have to sit up much of one night when, for the next two weeks, they are almost well? They tell me their doctor skin-tested sensitive to house dust but many "shots" designed to desensitize them did not do much good. Another doctor took away a lot of their foods but this didn't work. Another gave them an adrenalin spray and that, for a time, was wonderful, but now it does not work so well: it seems to have Another doctor made them cover their pillows and their mattress, but that did not help. Another doctor tried many of the antihista minic drugs, and some of these helped. One doctor gave some codeine and this helped beautifully until the person became sensitized to the stuff. Another doctor gave the old-fashioned iodides, and for a while this helped a great deal.

So often, when an intelligent asthmatic patient says to me, "I wish I could figure out for myself what brings on my attacks," I am delighted, and I sit down to teach him how to do the home detective work that, in some cases, can be so helpful and so delightfully

I can remember the first young woman who taught me, how helpful such a study She kept a record of what she had done before getting an attack and found that was free at home but always ill at her grandmother's place in a suburb. Later, she found she was very sensitive to cat hair and her grandmother loved cats.

VARIED CAUSES

I remember the next patient who found, on keeping a record, that he got asthma when he sat on his davenport. Later, he found the trouble was all due to one pillow full of goose feathers. A woman got asthma when her daughter came home from the riding academy. The mother was very sensitive to horses.

I remember so well the woman who got asthma when her husband, a travelling man, came home from a trip. Only when a careful record was kept did we learn that the husband think it's a little bit thin. It doesn't tally with other facts about Britain's newspaper reading habits.

The eight big national dailies are all mornings and people who live anywhere from a Cornish village to a Yorkshire hamlet can have any one of them on their breakfast table each day. But there are no national evening papers.

In Canada, of course, the big papers are the evening ones. Why this basic difference in reading habits? Why does the Englishman feel that he must get the body of his daily reading of news and views done in the morning, whereas the Canadian prefers to take it at his ease at home after the day's work is done?

If you take Toronto's two evening papers and compare them to London's three evenings, the surprising fact emerges that Torontonians read twice as many.

But I think one of the main explanations of Britain's overall higher readership of papers is that much of Canadians' reading is phoned off into magazines.

Despite its much smaller population Can-ada has four general periodicals of between a half and 1½ million circulation. None of Britain's three general magazines can muster loved her biscuits, and when she sieved flour and inhaled some of it, she later got to

I have told the story of the asthmatic woman whose problem was easily solved when we learend that she had asthma only when she slept in certain houses. A careful survey of these houses by a builder showed that the ones in which she wheezed had a lot of pressed board. It was easy then to show that dust from this type of board caused her asthma. Another of my patients, with a bad asthma, gave me the clue when she said she never wheezed except when she slept in her own bed. Her physician found out for me that her room was full of canaries, and then we found that she was very sensitive to these

SWAMP "ASTHMA"

I remember well a farmer who we found got his asthma only when he went into town by a certain road that went through a swamp. He was very sensitive to swamp elder. I remember a cabinet maker who got asthma only on days when he polished a certain type of wood, and I remember a number of asthmatics who had to choose between asthma and giving up their job in a factory where some special dust made them ill.

To help asthmatics in doing their own detective work to find out why, occasionally, they are free and at other times are all stuffed-up. I wrote a booklet. It is one of a group I have written for the help of patients.

Anyone who wants the list can write search. Anyone who wants the list can write me-including a stamped, addressed envelope-I am sorry I cannot give them away, but most of them cost less than 75 cents.

Many persons with asthma, when they keep record, may find that many of the spells follow emotional strain. I have read that one in two of the children who go to one fine hospital for asthmatic children stop wheezing the day they leave their home—where, perhaps, the parents were fighting or talking about divorce, or being too fearful and solicitous about the child

Many asthmatics ask me if they should go to the dry areas, but I cannot say. A wise allergist could probably advise them.

Many asthmatics past middle age are suf-fering from conditions hard to cure, such as emphysema (a disease that causes a great loss in efficiency in the lung) or they are having trouble with a bad heart. Many are smoking too much and can choose between wheezing and not smoking three packs a day!

HOME GARDEN Keep Eye On Weather When Planting By JACK BEASTALL

It is repetition to say the season is three to four weeks ahead this year, but while the growth of our hardy plants is well advanced, we must bear there are always exceptions. Things can be done in a well sheltered garden that would be folly to attempt in an exposed garden, and the use of a greenhouse, coldframe, or the con-tinuous cloches help the gar-dener to be still further ahead in an early season

Since natural and artificial protection is the exception rather than the rule in most gardens, it is wise to contem-plate the vagaries of weather which could be experienced in the next month, and keep the sowing and planting of tender subjects to the average dates for

Tomatoes, dwarf and climb ng beans, sweet corn, and all the cucurbits such as marrow, squash, cucumber and melon, are warm weather subjects requiring an average temperature considerably higher than we are experiencing at present.

While they may come to no harm if sown or planted out now, they will not make their characteristic rapid growth. The growth will be slow and, as we say, hardened; the fibres will be tough and unable to expand to support a large plant when growth reaches its normal speed ater in the season,

In a few words, make haste dowly. The gardener who is late with the more tender subjects is often ahead of the early

Little Bucky Could Prove Big Trouble for Vikings

In the tall man's game of basketball, Lawrence "Bucky" Parent is usually giving away a flock of inches when he a flock of inches when he lines up against his check. But the fact that he measures only 5'6" hasn't prevented the agile Windsor AKO forward from playing a starring role with the Fratmen, four-time eastern Cannada jurior peops champions.

Testimony that coach
Frank Wansbrough is satise fied with the little scooter's ability is his spot in the start-ing lineup of the Windsor squad, which opens the bestof-five Canadian junior final against Victoria College Vik-ings at Victoria High School

Friday night.
And Bucky's bustling tactics fit right in with the driving, free-wheeling style of fers.

"We play a fast-breaking aggressive game," the coach has said. "That's why we stalled only in the last minute of the final game against Hamilton although we had a small lead."

Down 56-43, after the first zame of the two-game, total-point series with Hamilton for the eastern crown, AKO battled back in the deciding tussle and gained a four-point series lead with four minutes remaining.

Instead of attempting to protect the slender lead by holding the ball, Wansbrough kept his tiring crew driving until the final 40 seconds, when he finally ordered the stall, and AKO came out with two-point series victory, 111-driving style of play, for the ball-hawking youngster is one of the most aggressive players on the club. And he gets points, as evidenced by his 16 point total in the final game with Hamilton.

More about that last game one press report stated that "never, in its 11 consecutive years of competition, has AKO looked better than it did in the first and third quarters of this game."

If Bucky and his pals repeat their performance with an-other standout Friday game, it could mean trouble for the Vikings, for AKOs have had only one losing season in 11 years, while rolling up an impressive number of titles, Dominion champs in 1948, AKO now holds four Eastern titles (1948, 1952, 1953 and championships. Wansbrough has been AKO coach for the whole 11 years, so he is not to be taken lightly when he stated that it was "the great-est game ever played by an AKO basketball team."

As such, it proves the Wind-probably the first Vic College basketball squad to capture a provincial title. But they made up for lost time in a hurry, winning every title west of Ontario before finally losing to To-ronto YMHA in the Canadian finals. And they did it the hard way, 'travelling always eastward when they weren't go down to defeat, it may have been travel as much as opposition that had cut them

This time, however, it's dif-ferent. Other teams come west in 1958, and Vikings are mak-ing the most of the situation.

With a comparatively easy win over Winnipeg Buffaldes for the Western Canada title already to their credit, Collegians are waiting their last, and probably tough est, opponents with eagerness And, the way things look from here, Windsor had better be at their finest when they arrive, for they will be facing a team that is at the zenith of of its power.

And Vikings don't plan to let their travel-weary oppo-nents rest. They will be running hard in that first game

Viking coach Bill Garner, who has been handed an unexpected backboard advantage in Parent's lack of height, can be expected to give the matter special consideration.

So don't be surprised if fans are treated to the sight of 6 ft. 4 in. Viking forward Waldo Skillings straining far above the smaller Windsor player at the backboards.

In fact, Parent will be at least four inches smaller than the shortest Viking forward, Art Chiko. All other forwards in Garner's team are six feet tall or better, while his guards range in height from Jack Showers 5 ft. 9 in. to Doug Patterson's 6 ft. 1 in.

Wansbrough, however, striving to keep the situation well in hand, will keep his oth

Tom Mailloux, only 18 years old but in his second year of AKO basketball, towers 6 ft. 3 in. in the bucket position.

Centre Bob Hanson, whose 2" height helps on rebounds, alternates with Mail-loux in the key and is one of the top scorers of the team

Starting guards are slated be Ralph Patterson and Ed Vernes. Patterson, 6' 1" tall and captain of the team, is rated more of a playmaker than a scorer. Vernes, a ten-acious 5' 11" checker, is a three-year veteran with AKO.

Starting line-up for the Vikings will likely only be de-cided at 8.15 Friday, when the best-of-five series is the forward positions will likely be doled out to Skillings, Bob Tomlinson, Ken Brousseau or Ken McCulloch.

Virtually certain to start at guard are Tom English and Ed Kowalyk, who have played together for more

Times Open Champion to Receive Exclusive Jacket As Added Prize

There is a rare plum waiting to be plucked by the winner of this year's Times Vancouver Island Match Play Open golf tournament.

Stuart Keate, publisher of The Daily Times, announced today that the 1958 Open-champion will receive a distinctive and original jacket In addition to the regular first prize—a $100 suit if the winner is an amateur or $100 cash if a professional has been introduced in Cana-dian golfing circles.

The idea of an exclusive jacket, which will be created by golf enthusiast and cloth-ier George Straith, was borrowed from the annual Mas-ters tournament at Augusta,

Each Masters champion is presented with a distinctive green blazer. And in the fashion of the Masters blazer, the Times jacket will be worn only by winners of the Island

Open title.

The hand-tailored jacket will be made of fine English doeskin. The material, maroon in color, is exclusive and will only be available to future Island champions.

Adorning the jacket will be in original crest, designed by Elsie Robertson of the Times. The crest, pictured on the left, has a white background and is bordered by bullion (gold trim).

Victoria and district rugby fans will get a taste of something different when Oak Bay Wanderers stage the city's first seven-a-side tournament at Windsor Park Saturday.
Proposed and planned by B.C. Rep captain Peter

Clark, the seven-man, seven-minute-half contests are a regularly-scheduled feature of late-season play in Great Britain and prove a lively source of entertain-ment, for the fans. Teams are composed of three scrum men, three three-quarters and a fullback. Eight teams entered in the knockout competition are Royal Roads, HMCS Venture, Oak Bay, Victoria High, Shawnigan Lake Boys' School, Mount Newton High and two entries from the host club.

Games will start at 2 p.m. with finals to be played about 5.15.

Millions of TV fans know him as one of the most unusual western stars in years. But what few people know is that this hero of TV's most popular western is one of Hollywood's most unusual men in real life, too.

Now, in this week's Saturday Evening Post, read about the private life of James Arness and find out:

· why he has few, if any, friends about his offbeat hobbies and habits (he's been known to climb a tree and sit there alone for ring role in "Gunsmoke" — and how John Wayne finally talked him into taking it.

how his wife and family feel about having Matt Dillon around the house.

· the "freak" break that got him started in movies—and why making pictures made him feel about his childhood in Minne-soto—and how his restless nature led to his becoming a disillusioned

Now Shampoo Your Rugs Standing Up

New Bissell Shampoo Master cleans a 9×12 rug professionally in 30 minutes at home!

A sensationally easy way to clean rugs and carpets at home is now drawing raves from all women who have used it or have seen it in action.

Bissell has now perfected a new Shampoo Master Applicator and Liquid Rug Cleaner that will give rugs professional type cleaning at one-tenth the cost-as easily as using a carpet sweeper.

Stains disappear with a few easy strokes. Removes milk, coffee, greasy food stains-and other stains that professional cleaning can remove.

Rugs and carpets can be shampooed three or four times a year, to bring up the colors like new, and prolong the life. Even pastel wall-to-wall carpeting is no problem now, with the new Bissell Shampoo Master method!

Come in and watch the rug cleaning demonstrations. You'll be amazed and delighted!

SAFE for all types of rugs

Wool, cotton, nylon, rayon and other synthetics. Antique Orientals, too!

ODORLESS!

No need to air out your home after shampooing with clear, odorless Bissell Shampoo Master Diquid Rug Cleaner.

NONTOXIC!

work for you. No stooping, no scrubbing. No messy mop-ups with a towel. Your hands never touch the liquid cleaner or the rug!

"Pastel rugs now practical for everyone!"

Mrs. HARPER RICHARDS

Even women with children can now have rugs and car-pets in the new shades of gold or green or beige, to go with their modern furnishings.

"All rugs really should be shampooed every three or four months, to keep the colors the same shade you originally selected. Now the Shampoo Master lets you do it easily, and prolongs the life of your rugs, too!"

Cleans a square foot for 11/4 cents

Each can of Shampoo Master Liquid Rug Cleaner will clean one-and-a-half 9 x 12 rugs, or 162 square feet of carpeting. You can save hundreds of dollars in cleaning bills over the years.

Easy as using a carpet sweeper! This is all you do: Simply push the Bissell Shampoo Master Applicator over your rug or carpet. A trigger in the handle releases the liquid rug cleaner which sponges deep into the fibers of the rug, removing all soil and stains. When rug is dry, simply vacuum. Rug is bright and clean as new!

Alexander MacKenzie—'From Canada by Land'—(1793)

Captain Vancouver was busy charting the coastline while awaiting further orders from England in respect to the settlement of the "Nootka Affair." His explorations took him north of Vancouver Island and in June he was at Burke Inlet near the mouth of the Bella Coola River. A month later on July 22nd a Canadian exploration party from the east led by Alexander MacKenzie reached

In the fall of 1792 Alexander Mackenzie, a fur trader of the North West Company had set out from Fort Chipewyan in a light canoe which could be carried easily by four men. His party proceeded up the Peace River and spent the winter near the junction of the Smoky and Peace Rivers. The next year he followed the Peace and the Parsnip and portaged across to the "Great River" (the Fraser—which was thought to be the Columbia.) After proceed-advised by friendly Indians to follow a tribu ing down river for some distance he was tary to the west. He was actually following one of the "Grease trails" by which Coast Indians carried fish oil for trade to the in-terior. When his party reached the Bella Coola River they borrowed an Indian cance and descended it to the sea. Here we see him using his sextant to determine his position. Three days later on a rock in Dean Channel he mixed vermillion and grease to write his famous inscription "Alexander Mac-Kenzie from Canada by land the 22nd of July, 1793." The Dominion government has since erected a monument on this spot which marked the end of the first overland journey through the mountain barriers to the coast. In this way a dangerous and difficult but usable route was established for the fur-traders of the North West Company to ex-

ROCKET NOT INCLUDED

Smithsonian scientists believe Russia was referring only to the weight of the instruments dog and the essentials to keep it alive a week in space, not the over-all weight of the satellite-rocket. They believe the rocket motor, empty tanks and frame were possibly 40 feet in length and weighed several This has been borne out by calculations bas ings of Sputnik II.

The significance of this is that it indicates Russia must rocket far larger than anything on American drawing boards. Scientists say it takes roughly 1,000 pounds on the ground to orbit a pay load of one pound. The 11-ton U.S. Vanguard develops 27,000 pounds of thrust to orbit a satellite the size of a handball weighing three pounds plus a final-stage rocket weighing less than 50 pounds.

IGNORED ROTATION Russia must have developed a rocket 1,000 times more powerful if Sputnik II weighs 21/2 tons or 5,000 pounds.

Even at greater efficiency than the Vanguard this means a Soviet rocket of over 2,000.

000 pounds thrust to put Sput-nik II into orbital acceleration. The achievement is even greater because Russia tossed away most of the extra push given by the eastward rotating earth. Their launching angle of 65 degrees to the equator means they didn't need to utilize most of the 1,000-mile-an-hour "bonus" thrust of the spinning earth at the equator

Fish more than one-half mile from the Ripple Rock blast Saturday morning were unharmed by the huge underwater explo-sion, a fisheries scientist said

Early reports indicated that sole two miles from Ripple Rock had failed to survive the blast, but Dr. Needler suggested deaths might have been caused "Ling cod survived the blast surprisingly well," said A. J. Whitmore, Vancouver, chief supervisor of fisheries for the Pacific area.

Prior to the detonation of 1. 375 tons of high explosive buried in tunnels in the huge rock in the heart of Seymour Narrows, 36 cages containing live fish were set out at regular intervals from the blast centre. Many of these were lost, not because of blast effect but from the wear on mooring lines caused by high-speed tidal cur-rents in the area. Enough were recovered, however, to indicate that beyond one-half mile all species of fish survived the blast.

Dr. Needler and Dr. J. P.

YOU DON'T NEED TO RE-WAX EVERY

Spills? Traffic marks? Dirt? You can bring back Stride's shine, without rewaxing! Stride is a different kind of self-polishing floor wax that actually protects like paste wax. When you damp mop, the dirt comes up, the traffic marks go away, but the Stride stays on. When spills occur, they won't penetrate Stride's real wax film. They simply "bead up" on the surface - a damp cloth wipes them away without a trace, even after they've dried and Stride's brilliant shine is easily buffed back again and again. Try 'Stride . . . the heavy-duty wax! With Stride you don't need to re-wax-every time. A little goes a long way, because Stride is a genuine wax.

by her mother's cousin, Miss Jean John.

Shady Creek United Church at Saanichton, decorated with baskets of daffodis, tulips and greenery, was setting for the wedding at which Rev. J. G. G. Bompas officiated. The full church choir of which the bride is a member, preceded her up the aisle and sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" Organist was Mrs. C. Cruickshank.

Given in marriage by her the blossoms decorated the Keating Institute Hall for a reception at which a three-tier cake set in pink tulle centred a bridal table. Toast was proposed by Frank Drake. *

A floral print sheath dress in blue and mauve with blue coat and tiny white feather hat was on honeymoon to the mainland. By PHIL LEE, Times TV Editor

CHATTER—Haven't heard yet how many watched "Old Rip" blow up last Saturday morning. Must have been quite a few ... although it is doubtful if it topped the record 5.6 million Canadians who viewed the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's live television coverage of the March 31 federal election.

With cities from Sydney, N.S., to Victoria, B.C., linked by the Canadian-U.S. network, 4,000,000 viewers were able to watch the English language coverage on CBC and privately owned stations. An additional 1.6 million viewers watched the show on the French-language web.

According to an Elliot Haynes survey the total represents the largest TV audience for a live presentation in the history of Cana dian television. Tota TV coverage audience for the 1956 election was 4.2 million while approximately 55 million Canadians watched the Queen address the na-tion last fall. Last year's Grey Cup football game drew 4.8 million viewers.

SCHEPELLI.

TV TEE-HEES

PERHAPS THE STRIKE of some 1,300 technicians against the CBS-TV network may eventually harm the web's prestige. But at the present time its weirdness and mysterious presentation of pro-grams has added a certain filip to proceedings that comes grams has added a certain mip to proceedings that comes as a strange sense of relief to some jaded viewers, sort of a new spice for an old stew. An example might be when a confused off-camera announcer on the $64,000 Question said: "We have a special event for our audience... so, I think we have a contestant comingon." And, Hal March, in signing off: "I'll see you next week of I'm still in husiness." week . . . if I'm still in business,

All of which reminds me of listening to a football game on the Prairies. The announcer, once a big grid star, was making his maiden broadcast and although he knew the rules of the game and the names of the players like the back of his hand he was suffering from an advanced stage of "mike fright." For the first period he stumbled through the game, confusing the players, missing the key plays and generally making a complete mess of things. When the gun sounded to end the first quarter one could hear him whistle a soft sigh of relief. Then he remembered his

'And now," he panted, "as the teams change ends let's all take time out to relax, lean back and smoke a mild, sweet football." No, he never announced another game.

DOUGLAS FIR PLYWOOD

(Waterproof, Glue)

131/2-Ft. INBOARD

> Designed by Edwin Monk Naval Architect

PLANS and Specifications

COMPLETE INSTRUCTIONS

This plan embodies all the advantages of fir ply wood construction and is excellent for fishing on bays, lakes, or streams. It is relatively fast and holds four people comfortably."

It is sturdy with 36" marine grade Douglas fir plywood planking on sides and bottom. Yet it is easy to build as planking with plywood means a single panel forms each side with two panels covering the bottom.

As the initial step in preparing to build this plywood boat, make a thorough study of the plans, noting carefully the construction details of each station, and reviewing the materials listed in the fir plywood and lumber order.

In ordering plywood, be Aluminum and Fiberglas sure to specify Douglas fir plywood which has letely water proof bond for all outdoor and

No matter what size your craft, it represents an investment in summer fun. Safequard your interests with protection against AT ANY OF THE POLLOWING theft, fire and loss.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)-This is a day when almost anything is bound to happen or come up that you had not foreseen, hence be on the alert. Then you can turn seeming error into a steppingstone. warned is forearmed," so take care!

TAURUS( April '20 to May '20)—You cannot com-prehend what a higher up or expert is trying to explain to you. Therefore, it is best you ask questions and be sure you do know what advice is being conveyed, and then put in action intelligently. then put in action intelligently.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)—A completely novel string of affairs confronts you, so be prepared by study and research to know how to cope with them, make them pay off. Get ideas from your newspaper, accept assistance from other persons intelligently. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21)-While you intuitively feel you should invest in some new centure that is not entirely clear to you, or you do not know enough about, it is best you first get all data and advice possible from financiers and experts. Then OK. LEO (July 22 to August 21)-A misunderstanding between a member of the family and a business partner does not concern you at all, so steer clear of it, don't waste time. Be kind to all with whom you come in contact, help them. Be joyful and calm. VIRGO (August 22 to September 22).—Here is the ideal day to work diligently on what concerns you exclusively and not waste a moment on the ephemeral. Then there is also a chance to get your health in the very pink of condition, your outlook on life brighter. LIBRA (September 23 to October 22)-Since Venus is the impelling power in your life, it is necessary you rid yourself of that fundamental worry today if you are to regain your peace of soul. Analyze where the trouble is, rectify it, and be happy by early p.m.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)—You are expending too much energy on endeavoring to get others to see things your way and act in same fashion. Use another psychological approach now. Be sympathetic attitudes and you have them eating out of your hand.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)-Don't make same mistake twice by going after that search for happiness and success that has once proven not workable. Stick to standardized systems and abundance comes. Above all, be grateful for help of others.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 26)-Here is the temptation to go jauntily off on a spending spree you can ill afford. Don't do it! Use your money for improving, embellishing present possessions. Also, take care of your voice, recarding equipment, cut records, etc. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) - Here is a fine day to get rid of what has not proved successful in the past, though your sense of economy may try to make you hang on to them. Useless things only deter your progress. Be progressive and thrive.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20)-A very close tie or pal today outlines some project for himself or herself that will in turn prove most beneficial to you, too, so listen with ears wide open and follow advice, help with your moral support. Co-operate.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN FRIDAY . . . The fine child born Friday will require that you give specific instructions as to anything he or she must do. And for best results, you must do so until he or she is able to steer his or her own ship of life, for early tendencies are toward very extreme modernism. Later this fine imagination will be used most constructively and with speed. The fine police person, detective is

B.C. Fisheries Cash Receipts. Down From 1956

British Columbia's fisheries had a marketed value of $63,100,000 in 1957, according to a statistical summary re-leased today by the Federal De-partment of Fisheries.

The 1957 total was lower by $4,400,000 than the fishery re-turns for 1956, and well short of the record $84,000,000 fish values of 1951.

Blake A. Campbell, chief fisheries economist, said the following factors affected the 1957 fisheries:

Herring values of $6.290,000, as compared with $10,660,000 in 1956, reflected the prolonged price dispute between operating companies and fishermen which resulted in only a 20 per cent fishing effort after Oct. 15.

LANDINGS HIGHER

Salmon landings were higher than in 1956 but lower unit prices for some species, coupled with a reduced catch of the more valuable sockeye, resulted in total salmon returns to fishermen of $18,885,000, compared with $21.356,000 in the previous

Landed and marketed returns Landed and marketed returns for halibut showed a sharp drop from those of the pervious year. Last year 22,647,000 pounds of this spartes brought 33,697,000 to fishermen and $5,616,000 in marketed value. The 1956 halibut fishery produced landings of 23,316,000 pounds worth $5,067,000 to fishermen and $6,636,000 on the fishermen and $6,636,000 on the market.

prepared and fresh-packed in the Niagara District

What could be more welcome to baby than another "stick-to-the-ribs" appetite "satisfier" like Gerber Spaghetti & Beef. The spaghetti provides the bulk, meat provides the "beefy" flavor and protein value—regetables have a natural tendency to add mildness to the whole recipe. The end result—a perfectly delicious vegetable-meat dinner for baby. There's the soft, smooth, strained style that feels "just right" on baby's tongue; or the evenly-minced texture of the junior version that encourages chewing. ### YOU DON'T NEED TO RE-WAX EVERY TIME

Spills? Traffic marks? Dirt? You can bring back Stride's shine, without rewaxing! Stride is a different kind of self-polishing floor wax that actually protects like paste wax. When you damp mop, the dirt comes up, the traffic marks go away, but the Stride stays on. When spills occur, they won't penetrate Stride's real wax film. They simply "bead up" on the surface - a damp cloth wipes them away without a trace, even after they've dried and Stride's brilliant shine is easily buffed back again and again. Try Stride . . . the heavy-duty wax! With Stride you don't need to re-wax every time. A little goes a long way, because Stride is a genuine wax.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19)—This is a day when almost anything is bound to happen or come up that you had not foreseen, hence be on the alert. Then you can turn seeming error into a steppingstone. "Forewarned is forearmed," so take care!

TAURUS( April 20 to May 20)—You cannot comprehend what a higher up or expert is trying to explain to you. Therefore, it is best you ask questions and be sure you do know what advice is being conveyed, and then put in action intelligently.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21)-A completely novel string of affairs confronts you, so be prepared by study and research to know how to cope with them, make them pay off. Get ideas from your newspaper, accept assistance from other persons intelligently.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21)-While you intuitively feel you should invest in some new venture that is not entirely clear to you, or you do not know enough about, it is best you first get all data and advice possible from financiers and experts. Then OK.

LEO (July 22 to August 21)—A misunderstanding between a member of the family and a business partner does not concern you at all, so steer clear of it, don't waste time. Be kind to all with whom you come in contact, help them. Be joyful and calm. VIRGO (August 22 to September 22)—Here is the ideal day to work diligently on what concerns you exclusively and not waste a moment on the ephemeral.

Then there is also a chance to get your health in the very pink of condition, your outlook on life brighter. LIBRA (September 23 to October 22)-Since Venus is the impelling power in your life, it is necessary you rid yourself of that fundamental worry today if you are to regain your peace of soul. Analyze where the trouble is, rectify it, and be happy by early p.m.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)-You are expending too much energy on endeavoring to get others to see things your way and act in same fashion. Use another MOUNT TOLMIE psychological approach now. Be sympathetic of their attitudes and you have them eating out of your hand.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21)-Don't make the same mistake twice by going after that search for happiness and success that has once proven not workable. Stick to standardized systems and abundance comes. Above all, be grateful for help of others.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)-Here is the temptation to go jauntily off on a spending spree you can ill afford. Don't do it! Use your money for improving, embellishing present possessions. Also, take care of your voice, recarding equipment, cut records, etc.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)—Here is a fine day to get rid of what has not proved successful in the past, though your sense of economy may try to make you hang on to them. Useless things only deter your progress. Be progressive and thrive. PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20)-A very close tie or pal today outlines some project for himself or herself that will in turn prove most beneficial to you, too, so listen with ears wide open and follow advice, help with your moral support. Co-operate.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN FRIDAY . . .

The fine child born Friday will require that yougive specific instructions as to anything he or she must do. And for best results, you must do so until he or she is able to steer his or her own ship of life, for early tendencies are toward very extreme modernism. Later this fine imagination will be used most constructively and with speed. The fine police person, detective is here, the expediter.

Landed and marketed returns for halibut showed a sharp drop from those of the pervious year. Last year 22,647,000 pounds of this species brought $3,697,000 to fishermen and $5,616,000 in marketed value. The 1956 halibut fishery produced landings of 23,316,000 for lighermen and $6,636,000 on the market.

fishermen and $6,636,000 on the market.

FOUR INTERRUPTIONS

The record revealed four disruptions of fishing operations in 1957. Halibut fishing was delayed for a week after the seasor opened May 1, pending a settlement of work contract between crewmen and operators of larger type vessels. The salmon net fishery was tied up on two occasions and the herring fishery was curtailed in the latter part of the year through price disputes.

The 13,000 fishermen and marine service men engaged in the 19571 fisheries represented an increase of more than 2,000 persons over the number engaged in primary operations in 1956. They sailed in a fleet of vessels and boats capitalized at $45,699.

DOWN FROM 1900

British Columbia's fisheries had a marketed value of $63,100,000 in 1957, according to a statistical summary released today by the Federal Department of Fisheries.

The 1957 total was lower by $4,400,000 than the fishery returns for 1956, and well short of the record $84,000,000 fish values of 1951.

Blake A. Campbell, chief fisheries economist, said the following factors affected the 1957 fisheries:

Herring values of $6,290,000, as compared with $10,660,000 in 1956. reflected the prolonged price dispute between operating companies and fishermen which resulted in only a 20 per cent fishing effort after Oct, 15.

LANDINGS HIGHER

Salmon landings were higher than in 1956 but lower unit prices for some species; coupled with a reduced catch of the more valuable sockeye, resulted in total salmon returns to fishermen of $18,885,000, compared with $21,356,000 in the previous year.

Landed and marketed returns for halibut showed a sharp for the more halibut showed a sharp and the properties of the prolonged price labeling the properties of the prolonged price dispute between operating companies and fishermen which fresulted in only a 20 per cent fishing effort after Oct, 15.
